

Art on the Wing!

Barred Owl

Saw-Whet Owl

Red Tailed Hawk

Merlin Falcon

Peregrine Falcon

Great Horned Owl

The Auburn Public Library presents Wingmasters™ | Sketch live birds of prey!

Saturday February 22nd 2020 | 11:00am – 12:00pm | Registration is limited to 25 patrons

Thank you to the Auburn Cultural Council for funding this fascinating, hands-on program!

A variety of live birds of prey provide the inspiration for sketching

Wingmasters™ is a partnership of two licensed raptor rehabilitators, Julie Anne Collier and Jim Parks

In this program, the birds are used as models, displayed for 10-15 minutes each, while artist Julie Anne Collier points out each bird's characteristics, guiding the audience toward a fuller understanding of what defines a bird of prey, and how to sketch them! No experience or artistic ability is expected | | All materials are supplied.

Try your hand at sketching!

Registration is Required

Register online, or visit or call the Library

Intended Audience | Primarily Adults

Children age 10 or older, or with permission of the director, may attend - space permitting

Auburn Public Library | 369 Southbridge Street, Auburn, MA | www.auburnlibrary.org | 508.832.7790 | Dr. Jean E. Collins, Director